

James Cunningham to George Washington, February 27, 1757, Letters to Washington and Accompanying Papers. Published by the Society of the Colonial Dames of America. Edited by Stanislaus Murray Hamilton.

FROM JAMES CUNINGHAM, ESQ.¹

NEW YORK 27th. Feby. 1757

SIR

I had the honor to receive your letter From Fort Loudoun with one Inclosed to Lord Loudoun who begs that you will excuse his not writing to you by this opportunity, the hurry of business which he is in at present having prevented him. His Lordship seems very much pleased with the Accounts you have given him of the situation of our affairs to the South'ard. The good Character given of you by the gentlemen I have met with of your acquaintance makes me wish to have that Honor, & I hope that next Summer will afford me an opportunity, as his Lordship proposes seeing Virginia

Captain Roger Morris General Webbs Aid de Camp desires his Compliments to you.

I am Sir Your most Obedient & most humble Servant JAS CUNINGHAM Aid de Camp
